REQUEST FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Stakeholder Engagement Committee Representative (Part-time position)

Do you have a passion for safety? Are you interested in eliminating workplace diseases and injuries? Do you want to help ensure Northern workplaces are safe, and workers injured on the job are cared for? If you answered yes to these questions, the Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission (WSCC) has the perfect role for you.

The Stakeholder Engagement Committee (SEC) provides timely feedback on all areas of WSCC services, including policy creation, program development and safety resources and materials.

The WSCC is seeking new members to represent a wide variety of stakeholders, including workers, employers, and members of the general public, from across the Northwest Territories and Nunavut.

If you are interested in this exciting opportunity to help advance the Northern safety culture and offer a fresh perspective, let us know! Send your resume, along with a letter stating why you would like to participate in the SEC by Friday, May 28, 2021 to:

Meta Antolin

Chairperson, Stakeholder Engagement Committee Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission Box 8888 Yellowknife, NT X1A 2R3

SEC@wscc.nt.ca

The ideal candidate will demonstrate a commitment to workplace health and safety, be of high ethical standards and have a respect and appreciation of diverse stakeholders' interests from the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. They must be able to commit to deadlines, and able to use email as a primary means of communicating with the WSCC. SEC members receive a quarterly honorarium of $275 ($1,100 per year), based on their level of participation. Terms are for two years.
